To the Honorable W. S. R. Morrison Judge of the Circuit Court of Lee County Virginia.
Humbly acknowledging your orator Thomas Lavin, would respectfully represent and shew unto your honor, that G. W. Norwood is justly indebted to him in the sum of $145.58, which became due and payable on the 20th day of November 1888, on account of which is herewith filed as part hereof marked "A", no part of which has been paid; that the said G. W. Norwood is not a resident of this State, but has estate in the said County. The object of this suit therefore is to obtain a decree in your favor against said Norwood amount of his said claim, and to make subject to the payment thereof estate of the said defendant in this County.
To this end your orator prays that the said G. W. Norwood be made the party defendant to this bill, and <sup>required to answer the same on oath</sup> and on a hearing a decree be rendered in favor of your orator against said Norwood for the amount of his said debt, and that any estate of the said defendant that may be attached for the purpose be sold and the proceeds applied to the payment of said debt. And for general relief. May process issue, &c.

Thes by Plffs counsel.

Please state anything you may know about Thomas Gavin furnishing beef to G. W. Norwood, when it was and all you may know about it?

Answer. I know that G. W. Norwood was a R.R. Contractor and was doing work for the L. & N. R.R. in Bell County Ky. on Yellow Creek, in the fall of 1888. I was employed by Thomas Gavin and delivered beef for him to Mr Norwood. I delivered beef twice or three times a week, for about two months. and sometimes I got a receipt for the beef and Sometimes I got no receipt, I expect I delivered as much as Two Thousand pounds of beef to Norwood, during the month of October 1888. I heard Mr Norwood tell his hands that he was paying  $5\frac{1}{2}$  Cents per pound for beef.

Quies by same.

Do you know anything about Mr. Gavin hearding Mr. Norwood's hands, and if so state what you may know about it?

Answer

All I know about it is, that some of Norwood's hands boarded with me Gavin, and I heard them say that Mr Norwood was to pay the bill, and I saw Mr. Gavin present the bill to Norwood and he said it was all right, and that the money would be paid, one of the men stayed there and boarded a long time, and I should think they boarded out at least eighteen dollars worth.

Quies by same.

Was Mr. Norwood prompt or not to pay his bills and contracts?

Answer.

I don't think he was very prompt for I heard a great many complaints

Please state anything you may know about Mr Thomas Covin furnishing beef to G. W. Norwood, when it was and where <sup>and</sup> all you may know about it?

Answer. Mr Norwood was a Contractor on the L. & N. R.R. and was working on Yellow Creek in Bell Co Ky. I delivered to Mr Norwood Beef for Mr Covin on several occasions in the fall of 1888. and I generally brought receipts from Mr Norwood to Mr Covin, I know the fact that a man by the name of Blenums, Clerk for G. W. Norwood and I file with this my deposition receipts numbered 1-2-3-4 & 5 signed G. W. Norwood per Blenums. which I am of opinion were signed by said Blenums. I also file a receipt.

Numbered "6" Signed "E. W. Norwood per Siler Clk" and I remember that a man by the name of Siler did Clerk for Mr Norwood. As to the two receipts also filed herewith Numbered 7 & 8, and Signed E. W.
 Norwood J. J. J. I do not know who J. J. J. was - but I do know That Mr Norwood had several different Clerks. I don't remember exactly what Cavin was to have for the beef - but it was somewhere from five to six Cents per lb.
 I think the paper Numbered "9" is in E. W. Norwood's hand writing I saw quite a number of R. R. hands boarding with Mr Cavin - but did not know who they were. The people in the vicinity of his work complained about Mr Norwood being slow pay.

J. H. Curwood

To the honorable W. D. K. Morrison Judge of the Circuit Court of Lee County, Virginia.
The undersigned, late Sheriff of said County, respectfully reports that pursuant to an order made on the 3rd day of April 1891, of your honors Court in the Chancery Cause of Thomas Garin vs A. B. Minsey administrator of the estate of G. W. For-wood deceased, I advertised that I would sell the horse attached in said cause on this the 3rd day of August 1891, at the front door of the Court House of said County as in said order directed, A copy of said advertisement is herewith filed marked "Ad." but said horse was not delivered and consequently was not sold, and the forthcoming ~~said~~ bond was forfeited that was given for the delivery of said horse.
I do not know what became of the horse but am informed that J. M.
Whelan, the sequestrator in said bond, probably took charge of him, but as to what he done with the horse I do not know.
Respectfully submitted,

W. D. K. Morrison

From all men by these presents that we Thomas Cavin and are held and firmly bound unto the Commonwealth of Virginia in the just and full sum of Two Hundred Dollars, and for the prompt payment thereof well and The condition of the above obligation is such that whereas the above bound Thomas Cavin has sued out an attachment against the goods and chattles of one E. H. Harwood, and caused the same to be attached.

Now therefore should the said Thomas Cavin or some
